

PRESS RELEASE

Valoria C. Hoover of Kohrman Jackson & Krantz PLL Elected President of the Ohio Women's Bar Association

May 2010 (Cleveland and Columbus, OH) – The law firm of Kohrman Jackson & Krantz PLL is proud to announce that partner Valoria C. Hoover has been elected the President of the Ohio Women's Bar Association for the 2010-2011 term.

Hoover is the Partner in Charge of Kohrman Jackson & Krantz PLL's Columbus office. Her practice primarily consists of general corporate matters and complex business litigation. As former Special Counsel to the Ohio Attorney General, Val has extensive experience in appellate practice.

"We are honored to have one of our partners accept this leadership role for an outstanding organization that promotes women attorneys," says Marc Krantz, managing partner of Kohrman Jackson & Krantz PLL. Krantz further adds, "Val's selection by her peers not only serves as recognition for her service and contribution to the Bar, but as affirmation of Val's dedication to serving all members of our state."
